Christopher and Kerri Ann went out with John and Karen approximately six to seven times since October and the four planned on going to Florida in March. The last time Christopher saw John and Karen was January 15, 2022. Christopher and Kerri Ann went to John's house to watch the Patriots playoff game against the Buffalo Bills. Christopher stated there was nothing unusual about the night, everyone had some drinks and watched the game. Christopher left around 10:00PM with his brother and went home. Kerri Ann stayed at John's to play cards and then took an UBER home.

Christopher and Kerri Ann went to the Junction Bar in Canton then to a high school basketball game. Christopher stated he never met up with John and/or Karen that night. Christopher texted John Saturday morning asking what time the snow party was starting. Christopher stated John was planning on having people over to his house during the snow storm that day. John did not respond to Christopher's text message. Christopher stated his wife received two missed calls from Karen Read at approximately 5:30AM on Saturday January 29, 2022. The calls were unanswered but around 11:00AM, Karen texted Kerri Ann that John was dead.
